

SPRING SMALL ACREAGE LANDOWNER WORKSHOP

Saturday, April 27, 2019

9:00 AM - 3:30 PM

Location

Morning: TSJC Leone Lounge - Trinidad, CO

Afternoon: Field Visit

Are you a small acreage landowner looking to expand your knowledge and skills? Join experts from agencies and organizations across southeast Colorado as they cover key ways to get the most out of your slice of paradise. From wildfire mitigation to encouraging pollination in your garden, and many topics in between, this is an event you won't want to miss!

Free
admission and lunch is included!

Morning Session

9:00 - Wildfire Mitigation and Emergency Planning

9:45 - Reducing Conflicts With Wildlife

10:30 - Break

10:45 - Pollinators

11:30 - Common Health Issues With Horses and Livestock

12:15 - Lunch

1:00 - Carpool to Field Site

Afternoon Session

1:30 - Introduction to Property and Overview

2:00 - Native and Weedy Species Identification

2:30 - Establishing & Maintaining Pollinator Plants

3:00 - Soil Erosion Mitigation

Register at: smallacreageworkshop.eventbrite.com

For more information:

Lori Brown, Natural Resources Conservation Service
Lori.Brown@co.usda.gov | 719-846-3681 ext. 3122

Kim Peters, Las Animas County Extension
kim.peters@colostate.edu | 719-846-6881

